"LEAVES OF GRASS"
ONE HUNDRED YEARS AFTER

Edited by Milton Hindus. Essays by William Carlos Williams, Richard Chase, Leslie Fiedler, Kenneth Burke, David Daiches, J. Middleton Murry. "As a whole, the volume is immensely suggestive; these essays are certain to inspire many readers to go back and read Whitman himself."—The New Leader. "A vivid picture of the schisms, disagreements, and crosscurrents in recent Whitman criticism."—Irving Howe, The New Republic. 1955.

Cloth, $5.00; (SP 30) $1.95

SHERWOOD ANDERSON

Irving Howe. "The first full critical biography to deal with Anderson and his work. . . . For the first time we get a really full and also a really responsible account of Anderson's personal life. . . . Howe writes about Anderson's work with a quiet, patient, discerning, instructed power that makes his own book itself a literary event."—The New York Times Book Review. 1951.

Cloth, $6.00; (SP 34) $2.95

ANDRÉ MALRAUX AND THE TRAGIC IMAGINATION

W. M. Frohock. "Remains, I think, the best full-length study of Malraux."—John Weightman, The New York Review of Books. "Penetrating, lucid, fair. . . . Every page is precise, meaningful, suggestive. . . . There is pungency, subtlety, delicacy, and art in [Frohock's] style, there is humor and admiration, restrained and lucid affection for his hero in his pages."—Henri Peyre, The Romanic Review. 1952.

Cloth, $5.00; (SP 42) $1.95

TWENTY YEARS OF STANFORD SHORT STORIES

Edited by Wallace Stegner and Richard Scowcroft. With Nancy Packer. A selection of the finest stories to emerge from the first twenty years of the Creative Writing Center at Stanford University.
